Whitlock Who's Who

Elizabeth Andrews

Summertime and the livin's easy

Meanwhile, Sharon Nelson and Loretta Huff play a table game with Liz Andrews. Melissa Leonard (not pictured) joined in the fun, too. Residents, guests and staff like to play euchre, dominoes and any number of table games. Not to mention Monday Trivia and Bingo! ♡

The first thing one notices when meeting Elizabeth—or Liz, as she likes to be called — is her adorable and gracious smile.

Fresh out of graduation from Bremen High School, Liz Andrews joined The Whitlock staff part-time for the summer as a cook, server and wherever there is a need.

Liz began working weekends in late May for training and said she learned much during her work here. "I didn't know how to cook. Cindy and Melissa [Leonard] patiently taught me a lot." She has also joined the games with residents — Games with Liz — on Thursday evenings until summer's end.

"The people are easy to work with and I love the residents," Liz said. "There is a lot of intelligence here and they like to open up with advice." She went on to express how she had loved to hear her own grandmother's stories of her life.

Liz's parents are Michael and Sheila Andrews of Bremen. The family includes an older brother, Mitchell and his wife, Kayleigh, and her sister, Brianna. Liz is a faithful churchgoer at the Church of Jesus Christ in Argos, where she teaches first- through fifth-grade children's Sunday School and her Dad is a youth pastor.

Liz enjoys reading and singing. "I was in the Girls' Ensemble at school," Liz said. "I loved the musicals and the trip to Chicago with the choir."

Liz will complete her duties by the end of the month when she goes on to college at Indiana University South Bend, living on campus. "I like to help people," she said. "I'll begin with general studies, and my plan right now is to continue in health science to pursue a degree in radiology."

The Whitlock family will surely miss Liz and everyone wishes her all the best for her future! ♡

Renovations ongoing within The Whitlock facility

The Board of Directors and Administration at The Whitlock are working hard to refurbish and brighten spaces within The Whitlock facility.

The Whitlock gathering area, ca 1968

Originally built in 1968, the facility is blessed with good bones and attractive structure appreciated especially by those who grew up in the mid-century era.

The Whitlock's Board of Directors have been working to renovate the facility with updated finishes that will brighten and improve the quality of living for its residents, while respecting the original era and design.

So far, the old flooring and carpets have been replaced with beautiful hardwood-look laminate, the dark paneling has been brightened with light walls and new cabinetry and appliances are added to the breakfast nook area. Work will continue as funds provide. ↪

Bryan Kratzer on the Piano

3 p.m. — Saturday, August 3.

Come to the Gathering Room to hear Bryan Kratzer play piano renditions of gospel and classical music.

Bryan is the worship leader and plays piano for the Bremen Church of God, where his wife, Jaree, serves as Pastor. Jaree provides Tuesday devotions occasionally at The Whitlock.

Bryan is originally from the Rochester-Akron, Indiana area and has been playing piano since he was eight years old. He also is a third-grade teacher at Plymouth Elementary School. A hearty welcome to Bryan! ↪
