That's Amore!

Remember the Italian love song by Dean Martin popular in 1953? "That's Amore" is an Italian love song, and last month, Whitlock residents were shown love Italian style with dinner and entertainment provided by Southwire Company Project GIFT. Red and white sparkling grape juice was served. Guests selected from a menu of salad, lasagna, different kinds of pizza, garlic bread and a variety of cheesecake for dessert.

Cora Callander, granddaughter of John and Jill Yeager, sang an array of songs, including one from her upcoming role in the Amish Acres Theatre production of Annie. Her grandparents joined her in a trio to sing How Great Thou Art.

Residents were also invited to guess the names of famous Italians from photos shown, including Mario Andretti, Sophia Loren and Fabio!

Meet Heidi Good-natured service

This feisty lady brightens the lives of residents with her sense of humor and willingness to make life easier for those around her. Heidi Willis joined the Whitlock staff nearly two years ago and has been an integral part of the organization ever since. "I was here a lot to see my grandparents (Andy and Anna Albert), so it was a natural fit for all of us," she says.

Heidi and her husband, Jon, have lived in Bremen for five years, coming from Nappanee. She grew up in Nappanee and graduated from Northwood High School. She and Jon, who was from Wakarusa, met through mutual friends at a concert. "We played arcade bowling games, and I kept winning," she said. "I think I was a challenge for him so he asked me out." They have four children: McKay (25) works at Newmar, Nicolle (19) is a freshman at St. Mary's, Reece (16) is a junior at Bremen, and Gretchen (14), a freshman.

Heidi has two brothers who now live in Florida and a sister in Nappanee. "I was an outdoor kid and ornery," she said. "My one brother and I were close and we played outside a lot together."

Before she had children, she worked in the factory at Holiday Rambler, eventually setting up RV shows for the company. "I enjoyed traveling for the shows and was able to see a lot of places in the country. I like seeing it all."

Now, the family mostly travels to support Gretchen's volleyball and softball games, and Reece's baseball. Heidi appreciates art and enjoys reading all kinds of books, especially sci-fi and thrillers.

"I'm a 'foodie' and like trying new restaurants and foods," she said. "The hardest thing is not eating dessert." Locally, she enjoys sushi at Zings and the Crooked Ewe offers a wide variety of new foods.

"I like serving here," she said. "I feel blessed and lucky."

Sally Pays a Visit

On August 4, Louise and Gary Webster stopped in to visit The Whitlock. To the delight of everyone, they brought along their companion, Sally, who is a comfort dog. The Websters are from Noblesville, IN and had come to the area for a class reunion. They are relatives of residents, Marilyn Ralston and Eleanor DeSchepper.

Comfort dogs and their owners volunteer and are trained to provide joy and comfort to people they visit in hospitals, schools and nursing homes.

Apparently, Sally made a big hit! And the Webster's loved the visit as much as the residents. ☺

You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.
